WANTED - Four machinists. Secretary Houston Talks of Reconstruction.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Reconstruction plans in the opinion of Secretary Houston, should include resumption of highway construction under the federal aid road act, creation of a system of personal credit unions for farmers, systematic supervision of land settlement, provisions for safe-guarding the rights of tenants and encouragement of farm ownership, continuation of gevernment supervision of stock yards and related industries, and extension of the benefits of modern medicine and sanitation to rural districts.

Centidence was expressed by Mr. Houston that agriculture, which, he and, "probably was the best preparad interest in the nation when the war came", would be one of the first to readjust itself to a peace basis. MAY NOT PLAY BAYLOR

If Team is injured in Central Game Says Robinson.
Prof. Robinson, of Chattanooga High school, says that the game scheduled with Raylor may not be played. The announcement was made by Baylor yesterday that the fracas, which was postponed on account of the influenza, would be played next Tuesday.
The Chattanooga High principal declared that the actual outcome of the game Thursday will have nething to do with whether the Baylor affair will be held. It is understood that if the high school team is bunged up considerably Tuesday's game will be called off, but otherwise it will be played, even if it has no championship bearing.
